

HERC Short Courses: Fees

Introduction to Health Economic Evaluation

Fees are fully inclusive of tuition, lunch and refreshments and course materials. VAT is not payable.

Full fee: £295

Discounted fee for public/academic sector: £195

Applied Methods of Cost-Effectiveness Analysis

Residential option: Fees are fully inclusive of tuition, two nights' accommodation, meals for the 3 days of the course and course materials. VAT is not payable.

Full fee: £1600

Discounted fee for public/academic sector: £1100

Non-residential option: As above but without any accommodation.

Full fee: £1450

Discounted fee for public/academic sector: £950

Information on local hotels

Laptop Computer

Every participant in this course needs a laptop computer. You can bring your own, or we can hire one for you at an additional fee.

Cancellation

The fee is payable in advance. If you need to cancel your place the fee is refundable provided the cancellation is received two weeks or more before the course date. A 10% charge can be levied for cancellation.

Invitations in support of visa applications

These will not be issued until payment for course fees has been received.